

Susan and Kamala - by Tom Zades

Here are some “What if” ideas: The man who served as acting Director of National Intelligence in the Trump administration, Ric Grenell, told NewsMax back in May that he suspects Susan Rice is being groomed for President. She has been appointed domestic policy adviser, but Grenell says: “That’s a joke. She doesn’t know anything about domestic policy. She’s a foreign policy expert.” He thinks they want her in the White House to act as a “shadow president.”

He figures that, with Kamala Harris distracted by the border issues and her role in the Senate, she is in no way being prepared to step into the presidency. Grenell says that the White House is treating foreign policy like domestic policy: Placate the far left. “The foreign policy mess that they are creating,” he says, “is a mess because they are placating the far-left domestically. It’s part of that cancel culture.”

“They’re beating up on Israel,” he continues, “because it pleases the far-left. They are trying to reach out to Iran and pretend like the Iranian regime should be respected because it pleases the far left. This is the upside-down world of the Biden administration. President Biden is too weak to stop the progressive left from taking over domestic and foreign policy. Kamala does not understand what’s going on...and Susan Rice is really happy that Biden is so weak. We have a shadow president in Susan Rice and no one is paying attention.”

But she is more qualified than Kamala Harris! I lived in California during the time that she was the state Attorney General and later when she was elected to take the Senate seat that became available when Barbara Boxer retired.

I first became aware of Kamala when we would see her picture in the paper hanging out with the very influential Willie Brown. Brown served 30 years in the State Legislature, the last 15 as the Speaker of the Assembly; then he served as Mayor of San Francisco (1994-95.) It was no secret that Kamala and Willie were in a relationship.

She was 29 years old, beginning her career in the Alameda County District Attorney’s Office, and he was 60. With his help, she went from relative obscurity to Attorney General of San Francisco, and later of course to California Attorney General, and Senator. She was widely referred to in California as “Willie Brown’s mattress.”

She is absolutely unqualified to be Vice President of the United States, in my opinion. She wasn’t qualified to be a Senator or an Attorney General, either. The party that calls us racist chose a female person of color in a most blatant display of racism. She was selected to fill a quota...and yet she is a... heartbeat of a 78-year-old man... away from being president of the United States!

In a different context, I think of the quip: “How would you like to be operated on by a brain surgeon who cheated his way through medical school?” In this context, we have a woman who either “slept her way,” or somehow slipped her way into being now a “heartbeat away.”

I hope the liberal media continues to basically ignore her in terms of press conferences and interviews. Her silence isn’t golden, but it helps. I have a hunch that she is deliberately keeping as low a profile as she can. It’s the old saying “It is better to keep your mouth shut and let people suspect you are a dummy than to open it and prove it.”

By Dr. Hans Gerbert Bogensberger

Since the Green New Deal was introduced by the political left, the discussions have intensified on TV, the press, congress and society. The question is asked: “What will the impact be on our standard of living, prosperity and quality of life?”

Some companies are claiming in their commercials that their products are saving the planet from man-made climate change. This is the result of 40 years of lies, misinformation, manipulation, scare tactics, etc. The truth is that there is no real data to predict the climate in 100 or more years.

Swiss climatologists have proven, for example, that the famous Eiger North Face drop was carved by a glacier 13,000 to 14,000 years ago. Switzerland was covered with ice up to an altitude of 3,800 meters. All models used are computer calculations based on individual assumptions. Why are the proponents doing this?

Because the “Globalists” want a redistribution of wealth. They want to abolish all sovereign nations and destroy national traditions and identities, so that they can rule the whole world.

Common people would live in poverty, suppression and hopelessness, while the self-appointed elites get richer and richer. Some would be trillionaires.

It is high time for our nation to wake up and transfer the power back to where it belongs – back to “WE THE PEOPLE..”
